Term of the Service Agreement

This Service Agreement is effective from the commencement of the Participant’s current Plan, or the date the agreement is executed, whichever is later. The Service Agreement will operate until a notice is provided to end the service.

Ending the Service Agreement

Either Party may end this Service Agreement, by providing the other Party 28 days notice in writing. If either party seriously breaches this Service Agreement, the required notice period may be waived.

Changes to the Service Agreement

If any changes to this Service Agreement are required, APM will notify you in writing of the changes. These shall be considered accepted by you, unless you notify us in writing, within 7 calendar days.

Duty of Disclosure

By completing this form, you are engaging the services of APM. It will assist us if you provide a copy of your NDIS plan to APM for the purposes of managing your payments and invoices for services relating to your plan.

You may choose not to provide a copy of the plan.

In the absence of receiving your NDIS plan, we require written advice from the Participant or Nominated Representative of the funded support(s) in the plan, in order to manage the payment of invoices from the plan. Providing false or misleading information about your plan may lead to the cessation of your plan management services.

The Participant or Nominated Representative must notify APM of any changes to their Plan. Failure to do so may result in non-payment of invoices, and/or termination of services.

Schedule of Supports and Our Fees

Once engaged, APM will claim directly from the NDIA the setup and renewal fees* (if applicable) and monthly fee for the provision of Plan Management services. The fees for our services will be deducted from the Participant’s plan according to the NDIS Price Guide. The NDIA may from time to time vary our fees.

As an indication the current fees effective as of 1st of July 2025:

Support Category Name: Improved life choices

14_034_01 27_8_3	Plan Management - Financial Administration	A monthly fee for the ongoing maintenance of the financial management arrangements for managing of funding of supports.	$104.45

Optional Requested Services.

APM provides more than just NDIS Plan Management services. If you request and approve for additional professional services such as training, budget analysis and wellbeing check-ins, the following codes may be used:

- 01_134_0117_8_1 Self-Management Capacity Building
- 09_009_0117_6_3 Skills Development And Training
- 15_035_0106_1_3, Assistance With Decision Making Daily Planning and Budgeting (price capped at $67.56 per hour)
- 15_038_0117_1_3 Training For Carers/Parents

Our hourly rate for professional services including report writing, training and/or financial analysis is $77.00 per hour – GST exempt. Additional expenses (i.e. things that are not included as part of a Participant’s NDIS supports) are the responsibility of the Participant or Nominated Representative and are not included in the cost of the supports.

Payment of your invoices for NDIS Services / Supports

The Participant, their Nominated Representative, or their Support Coordinator is responsible for engaging their services supports providers, in accordance with the goals and funding in the Participant’s plan.

It is the responsibility of the Participant, Nominated Representative or Support Coordinator to ensure that the services align with the goals of the Plan and that there is enough funding available for the services they intend to access.

After the supports are delivered, the service provider, Participant or Nominated Representative will claim payment by forwarding the related invoice to APM via email.

Participant budgets and funded supports

The Participant or Nominated Representative will provide APM with details of their support budgets as per the Participant’s current NDIS plan. If the support categories or budgets change, the Participant or Nominated Representative must immediately notify APM in writing. The Participant or Nominated Representative is responsible for purchasing services/supports that fit within the funding of the Plan. APM is not responsible for any excess amounts not covered by the plan, and these will be referred back to the Participant or Nominated Representative directly for payment.

Please note: We are unable to claim any invoices that are over your budget. At our discretion, we can assist with making an NDIA payment enquiry in which we submit any invoices over budget to the NDIA for payment. Payment enquiries are subject to the NDIS’ decision and may be rejected and unsuccessful. A rejected payment enquiry will mean that invoice is an out-of-pocket expense which you will need to make a personal payment and resolve with the provider. The decision time for a payment enquiry can vary from a few weeks to months.

Consent for Disclosures.

We strive to be as flexible as possible and to work closely with Your Providers, especially Support Coordinators, Local Area Coordinators and the Agency. APM will only use and disclose personal information for the primary purpose for which it was initially collected, or for purposes which are directly related to plan management functions or activities. Refer to our Privacy Policy on our website for further details.

Where there are questions regarding the use of funds, alignment to your plan goals and/or invoice payment issues, You consent to APM to disclose personal details and work with third-parties including the NDIA to seek advice or resolve matters.

Standing Approvals

To expediate payments to your Providers, APM implements a Standing Approval to pay invoices from Providers on your behalf which may include cancellations, non face-to-face and travel charges. You will be provided with a monthly statement by us which You should check for correctness. You may opt out of standing approvals below if you prefer.

If you opt out, we will ask you to approve invoices for services which you do not have a current service agreement in place for. If you do not respond to our request to approve an invoice to either approve or reject it, we will mark it as approved to be paid by the due date.

Please leave blank or write "Opt Out" here if you wish to opt out:
